

THE FALCON FLYER

April 5, 2010

Dear Floral Street Families,

We hope everyone enjoyed this beautiful spring weekend – the weather certainly reminds us of how deep we are into this school year. It is amazing what your students have accomplished already, with great opportunities yet to come.

One of our annual spring traditions is our Literacy Night, which takes place this Friday evening. This is a wonderful opportunity for families and the whole Floral Street community to come together and share both the joy and pleasure that comes from the written word and to reinforce the powerful learning that results from focused effort in reading and writing. We can't wait to see you there with events starting at 5:30 pm. For the full schedule of the evening, see:

FLORAL STREET NOTICES:

Spring Playground Work

April vacation is when we traditionally ready our playground for use in the spring by turning over and freshening up the mulch. This year, we're also fortunate to be able to install a new piece of playground equipment, thanks to our generous PTO. If you'd be interested in helping out this year on Saturday, April 17th, please email Deb Richard at drichard@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us

PTO Read-A-Thon

Read, Read, Read! The Read-a-Thon continues through April 9th. Your child should have come home with their Read-a-Thon packet. Please encourage your child to participate. The student who reads the most in each grade level will receive a required reading book from the summer reading list. Also, the class with the most minutes read will be rewarded with a Pizza Party with Mr. Curtis and Mrs. McCubrey. Any questions, please contact Kim Wackell at kwackell@townisp.com or Patti Wolohan at wolohan5@townisp.com
